HONORABLE AVERN COHN

Defendants.

ORDER REGARDING VAUGHN INDEX

This is a civil rights case arising under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. During discovery the parties stipulated to a protective order requiring that certain documents produced during discovery be kept confidential. Defendants applied the protective order to some documents in their possession and stamped the documents confidential before turning them over to plaintiff; defendants did not claim the documents were privileged. The Court granted plaintiffs' motion to compel declassified discovery on April 12, 2006. The parties continue to dispute which documents are classified and which documents are not classified under the protective order.

For the reasons stated on the record at the July 25, 2006, hearing, the documents listed in the Vaughn Index submitted to the Court are deemed classified in part and unclassified in part depending on their use within the limitations stated on the record.

SO ORDERED.
